

CODE OF CONDUCT AND PARTY RULES KinkFest 2012

Code of Conduct

- * Smoking is allowed only in designated areas
- * Anyone appearing to be intoxicated or mentally impaired may be refused admittance
- * Respect the privacy of the others. What is seen or heard at the event stays at the event
- * No cell phones or cell phone accessories – e.g., ear buds and headsets - of any kind are permitted in the workshops or dungeon and must be kept out of sight. Cell phone use is allowed in the Vendor & public areas if blue tape has been placed over all camera lenses, otherwise they must be used outside of the event area
- * No cameras, Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs) or other recording devices are permitted within the Event Center
- * Prostitution, solicitation, and negotiation for BDSM services for consideration are illegal and will not be tolerated at the event
- * All attendees must wear appropriate (“vanilla”) clothing outside the event area. This includes the hallways and other public areas of the venue. This also means that “vanilla” behavior is expected within the public areas of the venue. This includes the covered smoking areas, parking lots, nearby hotels and restaurants, hallways, and any other area where non-attendees may be present
- * Please refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or heavy scents

Party Rules

* Absolutely no recording devices of any type are permitted in the Dungeon. This includes, but is not limited to, computers, cell phones and related accessories – e.g., ear buds and headsets -, cameras (digital and film), and Personal Digital Assistants (PDAs)

* Dungeon Monitors (DMs) will be on duty to supervise activities in the play space. Any questions or concerns regarding activities taking place during the play parties should be directed to a DM. All decisions by the DMs are final. There is no appeal process

* Clean equipment and surrounding areas after your scene. Wipe equipment down with disinfectant. Cleaning materials will be provided at multiple stations throughout the Dungeon

* The following activities and types of play are prohibited:

Gun Play - absolutely no showing or exposing of guns of any type

Fire Play - no open flames of any type are allowed

Wax Play

Scat or water sports play

* Safer sex including the use of latex or other barriers when body fluids are present is strongly encouraged. Safe sex supplies including gloves, condoms, and dental dams will be available for use

* Blood sports play is allowed only in designated areas. Dispose of sharps in the containers provided. Sharps containers are for sharps only. Dispose of other waste such as, but not limited to, gloves or cleaning materials that may have bodily fluids in the trash cans provided - not in the sharps containers. Do not leave the blood sports area while wearing needles - needles must be kept within the designated blood sports area

* Do not handle or touch other players' toys or personal equipment without permission

* Do not intrude into a scene unless specifically invited by the scene participants

* Watching scenes from a respectful distance is permitted, but please keep all conversations, laughter, and comments to a minimum. DO NOT talk to the players while the scene is progressing unless invited to by the players

* Please refrain from wearing perfume, cologne, or heavy scents